News Bulletin for the Week of June 25, 2007

Induction of New Members

Pres. Rolly was in the chair for his final meeting as King of the Hill. With graduations and what not, the crowd was down a little.

In his opening address Pres. Rolly acknowledged that it was a privilege to act as our President and he came to this meeting with mixed emotions; relieved not to have the responsibility of leading the meeting each week; saddened that his opportunity to serve in this capacity has come to an end. He feels that he might be able to afford a glass of wine each week in the future as Sgt.-at-arms Dick O'Toole may not exact $5-6 in fines each week.

this night when he gets formally inducted into the club.

PROGRAM

Passing of 2006-2007 Budget

New Treasurer Ron Coleman presented the budget for next year that had already been approved by the Board. Ron's comments referred to the revenues and expenses of each category under the direction of a specific director. Following that discussion and since no questions, the members unanimously passed the budget that shows a slight surplus for next year.

The program for this evening was the induction of new members by Chairman Jim Gilmer. Several years ago I marveled that the job would never be done as meaningfully as had been done by the late Ewart Marston several years ago. However, each time I hear and see Jim Gilmer deliver the heartfelt and statesman-like presentation, the memory of Ewart lives on. Despite having heard it often before, I resolve at the meeting to be a better Rotarian in the future.

This particular evening Doug Burke, Joe James, Cleveland Pendock, Diane Pendock and Kelly Morgan-Mackenzie were formally inducted. In each case the sponsor provided a brief introduction followed by each member having an opportunity to tell us a little about themselves. At the conclusion each were welcomed into Rotary by the handshake of each Rotarian.

Great job Jim

Next meeting: July 9th
Bulletin: Trish Kulig

Door: George Harvey and Jim Gilmer

Some Rodney Dangerfield
memories about his childhood:

1. I could tell my parents hated me. Bath toys were a toaster and a radio.
2. When I was born, the doctor came into the waiting room and said to my father "I'm sorry
– we did everything we could but he pulled through".

3. I'm so ugly – I worked in a pet shop and people kept asking how big I'd get.
