R. Wilf will be presenting the Wilf Wilkinson award for the Richmond Hill Rotary Club to the Chief of Police on June 2nd at the Golf and Country Club.

The Rotary Foundation has announced that applications will be accepted for grants as there is now money available. From Capetown, one of the host cities in Africa for the 2010 World Cup the ball is traveling through 22 polio affected countries on their way to Montreal where the Rotary International Conference will be taking place.

The V.T.T. Team (Group Study Team) will be in Australia for 5 weeks beginning in October 2010. The theme will be Suicide and Depression in Young People. Team members are needed if you know any suitable non-Rotarians.

Secretary’s Report

Shelter Box Canada will now be known as Disaster Aid Canada. It will be run by Canadians and the price of a Shelter Box will now be $750.00 Canadian -- a big price reduction. For more information the web site is DisasterAid.ca

Desert Reports & Guests

R. Jan introduced Rhonda Cunningham from N.H.H. and the chief of Police for Cobourg, Dave Cromlish.

Dave has lost nearly a hundred pounds and is doing the Hike for Health in the Northumberland Forrest. All proceeds to go to the hospital for equipment. Join him if you can to encourage him in his endeavour for as long as you can or contributions are always welcome.

Happy Bucks

R. Bruce circulated a photo of the bowling team taken in March. We raised $785.00.

R. Bill L.—Happy it's his Birthday and R. Linda's too. Sad to have been bitten alive on his fishing trip. (explains this picture)

R. Dick—Happy to be discharged from the V.O.N. care this week and is now able to have a proper shower.

R. Rolly—So happy Dick can now take a shower

R. Ted---Happy to have to former students present and to have seen R. Will sprinting through the traffic on Walton safely to the other side.

R. Will—Happy to have spent a week in New York where he learned to do this very well.

R. Ken O.—Happy to welcome a new granddaughter, Gillian Rose

R. Jim G.---Happy for Dorothy's birthday and their trip to Alaska but sad not to take part in the relay at St. Mary's School.

P. Elect John---Happy for his and Diane's anniversary and a nice dinner and a daughter who reminds him about it but he hadn't forgotten.

R. Paul T. Happy for their anniversary this week and to have enjoyed their granddaughter's dance recital. Sad to report the robbery at the Food Bank.

CLUB ASSEMBLY

Monday July 19th --- 4th Line Theatre to see Eldorado Town $27.00 Adult or $24.00 Seniors. Picnic in a Basket is available. Begins at 6 P.M. This is in place of a regular meeting. There will be a sign up sheet at the next meeting. Look on line for more information.

Financial Report

This was given out by R. Paul T. and we were supplied with printouts.

Rock and Roast

The Rotary Rock and Roast will take place on Sat. Sept. 25,

2010. Further info will be forthcoming in weeks to come.

Other

The subject of non-Rotary fund raising at weekly meetings was discussed and it was decided that there was not a problem but as a courtesy to the president she or he should be notified before the meeting begins.

A form was passed out for individuals to fill out concerning how to pay the $100.00 per member to the Rotary Foundation. Do we prefer to do this as part of the annual fee or in some other way.

Next week a commitment to attend the President's Night at R. Will's and Jenny's home will be expected. This is a spouse night on Mon June 14th. This is the week to get a car wash at Happy's Car Wash - $1.00 of the proceeds going to Rotary.

Next Week we have the pleasure of Elin's presentation. This will be a spouse night.

50/50 Draw

Won by R. Roger
